

Guarantee

Written by Administrator
Wednesday, 11 March 2015 13:32 -

---

The warranty period for all Electrolux Ltd products is 12 months for the first installation of the product on the date of installation or 60 days to purchase spare parts for our electric heaters and spare parts. Heaters and appliances spare parts must be connected to the set voltage, under conditions that ensure a safe and quality work.

Installation and replacement of heaters and spare parts of professionally trained and authorized persons (list of services in the web ( Electrolux Service ). The warranty is valid only if the heater and spare parts used in an appropriate and orderly manner in the middle of the planned appropriate the type of electric heater and the part that you use. Spare parts for boiler and heating system must be installed by an authorized person and professional, and the condition of the six regular maintenance (cleaning ovens lime) prepared by the authorized person. In the event that spare parts and the heater is not used in the prescribed manner (appropriate voltage, the environment in which it operates, etc.) is not incorporated or not replaced by an authorized person (Authorized warranty) Warranty and (Accounts) does not apply and is not valid